Student Council

The Student Council is the most important of our school activities. It is composed of ten seniors, six juniors, and four sophomores, elected by the members of their respective classes. It is the duty of the Council to act as an intermediary between faculty and student body, and thus to improve the general condition of the school.

The Student Council for 1937-1938 gave vigorous and constructive leadership in all student activities. Many proposals were transformed into actual facts. New qualifications and regulations for senior class elections were adopted. The students' radio-victrola was used extensively in the successful Friday afternoon dances organized by the Council. The junior members of the Council conducted a very successful junior prom. The Council led the movement to improve the general condition of the lunchroom. It also assumed control of the acute traffic problem in the corridors and on the stairways. The Council also took charge of the Community Fund drive in the school. The Student Council for 1937-1938 has reason to be proud of its accomplishments, which were brought about in great measure through the efficiency, ability and perseverance of its officers, and through the advice and assistance of Mrs. Moffatt, the faculty representative.

Dramatic Club

The Arlington High School Dramatic Club began this very successful season with 155 members. In order to make an early start on the public play, all social events were postponed. The club selected "The Admirable Crichton" by James M. Barrie for presentation in the Town Hall. This was not only one of the greatest undertakings ever presented by the club but also one of the most successful.

On March 26, five one-act plays were presented in the High School Auditorium. They were "Where but in America," "No Sabe," "War," "Dead Men Can't Hurt You," and "The Devil Comes to Alcaraz." By the averaged decision of a board of professional critics, the alumni of the club who were present, the vote of the audience and of the directors, "No Sabe" was chosen to represent Arlington at the Massachusetts Drama Festival in Everett on April 9. "The Devil Comes to Alcaraz" was a close second and consequently was presented at the New England Conservatory of Music on April 9.

Mrs. Matthews, Miss Johnston, and Miss Porter were faculty advisers of the club, directed its activities, and gave to its members much valuable guidance and instruction. The club has also been fortunate in having Mr. Robinson and Mr. Burke to supervise business and financial affairs and Mr. Kenney to assist with the scenery.

"The Admirable Crichton"

"The Admirable Crichton" by James M. Barrie was presented on Saturday, January 29, in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall. In spite of many handicaps the play was truly a great success. Originally planned for December, the play had to be postponed, owing to the absence of Ernest Benshimol. Then, eleven days before the play was to be presented, Irene Allison, who played the part of Lady Mary, fractured her ankle. Jean Mark, the sophomore understudy, took over the part and did a highly commendable piece of work in the public performance. The other leading parts were taken by Richard Ward, Irving Brown, Marion Fillmore, Peggy Bond, Herbert Greeley, William Miller, and Ella MacKenzie. Those who took supporting roles were Barbara Bouzas, Robert Benshimol, Franklin Volpe, William Olive, Ethel Svedlund, Constance Timmins, Catherine Iaconis, Joseph Hoar, Mark Newcomb, George Hughins, Douglas Gutteridge, and James Hagen. The play was difficult to produce, not only from the standpoint of the actors, but also of the scenery, on which Glenn Wright and his assistants worked for many hours. Chandler Wood was business manager, Marcia Weatherill and Virginia Arnold did props; Robert Benshimol, tickets; Robert Paradis, advertising; James Pappas, programs; Mildred Zwicker, candy. Barbara Hobbs and Paul Jones were head ushers, under the supervision of Mr. Hormel.

Radio Club

Since the Radio Club was not organized until after the Christmas vacation, its activities for this year were somewhat restricted. Mr. Skinner was adviser and all meetings were held in Room 35. The club went on the air twice, however, and made a few contacts. Much of the time was devoted to the teaching of the Morse International Code. Many members learned to send and receive quite well. The graduating members of the club sincerely hope that the undergraduates will carry on, and thus enable more A. H. S. students to get their amateur licenses.

Debating Club

This year the Arlington High School Debating Club was not so active as usual, because of a small membership and the lack of a faculty adviser. Two debates were held, however, one within the school, and one with Concord High School. In each case the subject of the debate was "Resolved, that the several states should adopt the unicameral form of legislature." We hope that next year the student body will have a greater interest in the club and that a faculty adviser will be appointed.

The Chronicle

The Chronicle has completed its sixth year as the official newspaper of Arlington High School. The ten-page issue has shown a noticeable increase in circulation. Personal items about the students, athletic news, editorials, and student digest columns were the basis of this year's paper. Trying to feature interviews with well-known personalities, the Chronicle succeeded in introducing such celebrities as Ruth Moss, radio announcer; Dorothy Speare, fiction writer; William Cowley, Jack Portland, Bobby Bauer and "Flash" Hallett, all-Boston Bruin Hockey Stars; Cecil B. DeMille, Hollywood producer; and Johnny Kelley, Arlington marathoner.

The junior journalism class and the Manual Arts department assisted in the publication of the Chronicle. Miss Krastin, Miss Pattison, Mr. Arthur, and Mr. Robinson gave valuable suggestions and assistance. Thus did the Chronicle ring down the curtain on a very successful year.

Ski Club

The Arlington High School Ski Club has just rounded out its second successful season under the leadership of Mr. Carl Witherell. The club was organized during the ski season of 1936-37. On account of the lack of proper snow conditions, the boys as a club saw little ski activity last year. At the beginning of the year the club had forty members. Good snow held out most of the winter. On January 23 at the Mt. Hood Reservation in Melrose, the club entered its first scholastic ski meet against twelve rival schools. Our four-man downhill team placed seventh among the twelve other schools, and the cross-country team placed fifth. We considered this a real accomplishment, considering that it was our first race.

To top off the year, on Saturday, April 2, Mr. Witherell with Bob Pierce, Robert Perkins, Don Mann, Richard Hanson, John Gammons, Robert Ladd, Phillip Fanning and John French, set off for a week-end of spring skiing in the famous Tuckerman's Ravine on Mt. Washington. The skiing was marvelous on the "corny" spring snow. While there the boys saw many of the country's professionals as well as amateurs. They stayed in Gorham, New Hampshire, Saturday night, skied all day Sunday, and returned "gloriously tired" Sunday night.

The club wishes to thank Mr. Witherell for his leadership and express appreciation to Jack French, John Gammons, "Myrt" Olsen, Bob Pierce, and Paul Robbins, the boys who constituted our winning team at Mt. Hood.

Model Aero Club

During the second year of the Model Aero Club both membership and activities have increased. Contests were held on an average of every two weeks. The club took up gas modelling this year. Four members boast such models, only two of which have engines. At the end of the second year the club is bigger and stronger than ever. We hope that it will see its third successful year in 1938-39.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Ethelwyn Wardle, reached even greater heights than ever before this year. Arlington, which last year won the highest honors at the New England Music Festival, this year returned to try to repeat its success. The Glee Club also sang at a meeting of the Arlington Woman's Club and in March went on the air over station WCOP to exhibit the talents of its members to the New England radio audience. We all wish the Girls' Glee Club continued success in the coming year.

Band

The Arlington High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Einzig and Mr. Mazzocca, had in 1937-38 one of its greatest, most brilliant and most colorful seasons for a long while. The members of the band are to be congratulated upon the fine showing that they made at many school assemblies and at the Town Hall. Perhaps the band's greatest achievement was the loyal and enthusiastic support it gave to the Arlington football team during the 1937 season.

The band had the honor of playing over WCOP and made a great hit. It hopes to participate in the 19th of April celebration and also at the State Festival.

According to many critics, this band was the best in years. The school certainly appreciates the hard work of its members and of its very able directors. We all hope that future bands will continue the fine work of the 1937-38 organization.

Hart; Bassoons, M. Dodge, M. Burns; Saxs, M. Nolan, L. Cavalieri, J. Hoffman; Horns, R. Bamberg, E. Jansen, R. Mellen, O. Hellman, R. Dolahm; Trumpets, M. Mazzocca, C. Bamberg, R. Brown, W. Patriquin; Trombones, S. Keller, R. Martin, R. Russomando; Drums, J. Poole, M. Thomas, G. Wright; Piano, P. Boone; Manager, C. Parker; Librarian, A. Broeg.

Orchestra

"This year's orchestra," said Mr. Einzig, "is one of the best I have ever conducted." He might well be proud for many were the words of praise that he received for its excellent performances. The string section was especially good, and the orchestra, as a whole, was properly balanced. They played at the Dramatic Club plays, at the Kiwanis Club, at the presentation of "Patience," and at the Arlington Music Festival. They attended the Music Festival at Fall River and returned home with high honors. Mr. Einzig certainly deserves many orchids for his excellent instruction and direction.

Gilbert and Sullivan Club

This club which was formed last year was not very active in the 1936-1937 season, except for its assistance in the presentation of the "Blue Star Broadcast." This year, however, the club blossomed forth with its hit production "Patience." This operetta was the outstanding school show of the year. Capably directed by Mr. Einzig and enhanced by the talents of such artists as Thelma Andrews and Edwin Morrison, the performance was given at the Junior High School East on April 29 and 30. Here's wishing the club more good luck and success. May its next operetta be every bit as successful as "Patience."

Art Club

The Art Club, a new club in Arlington High School, was organized in November, at the request of pupils who wanted to know additional things about drawing and painting that are not taught in regular classes, such as sketching, oil painting, etc. The club, under the direction of Mr. Kenney, invites members of the entire school to join. Club members have sketched in pen and ink and pencil, and painted in water colors, oils, and tempera. In subsequent years the club hopes to hold exhibitions as a separate part of the regular work of the year. For a new organization the Art Club has made excellent progress.

Cheer Leaders

We'll cheer today the Red and Gray
 We know our boys will shine—
 The backs will run around the ends
 And charge right through the line.
 The team will march on down the field
 Until the game is won
 So lend your voice and give a cheer—
 A cheer for Arlington—Rah! Rah!

Football

The 1937 football team enjoyed a most successful season by defeating Newton, Fitchburg, Waltham, Winchester, and Belmont; playing a tie game with Belmont; playing a tie game with Malden; and losing only to Leominster and Melrose. It was the first win over the Red and Gray in six years by the undefeated State Champion, Melrose.

The team was led by Co-Captains John Cashman and Linden Blanchard, and managed by Richard Bartholomew. The coaches were Mr. Ostergren, Mr. Hormel, and Mr. Johnson. A number of the players received all-scholastic ratings by the Boston newspapers. Letters were received by Co-Captains John Cashman and Linden Blanchard, Manager Richard Bartholomew, William Dale, Edward Kenney, Frank Alger, Robert Anderson, Walter Donovan, John Mahoney, Richard Scannell, Joseph Cormier, Louis Spina, Philip Down, Reuben LeBaron, Edward Quinn, William Mills, Walter White, Edward Burns, Howard Isner, Edward Tobin, and James Corbett. Philip Down was elected captain of next year's team.

Girls' Field Hockey

But for a 1-10 loss to Lexington, the field hockey team had a very successful season. The team played Concord, Melrose, Belmont, Winchester, Malden, and Lexington. Captain-elect Ryta Healy and her team, under the splendid coaching of Miss McCarthy, have our best wishes for success next year.

Letter girls: Ruth Kelley, Catherine Farrington, Margaret Meikle, Jane Carroll, Violet Hazlett, Marcia Lowcock, Ryta Healy, Helen Peabody, Natalie Movsessian, Naomi Fellman, and Rosemary O'Neill.

Boys' Basketball

The 1937-38 basketball team, led by Captain "Mush" Corbett, finished the season with eleven victories and eight defeats. The Arlington team was invited to participate in the North Shore Tournament held at Danvers, Mass. There the loyal Arlington fans saw their team reach the semi-finals where they were finally defeated by the fast team from Lynn English, who thus became North Shore Champions.

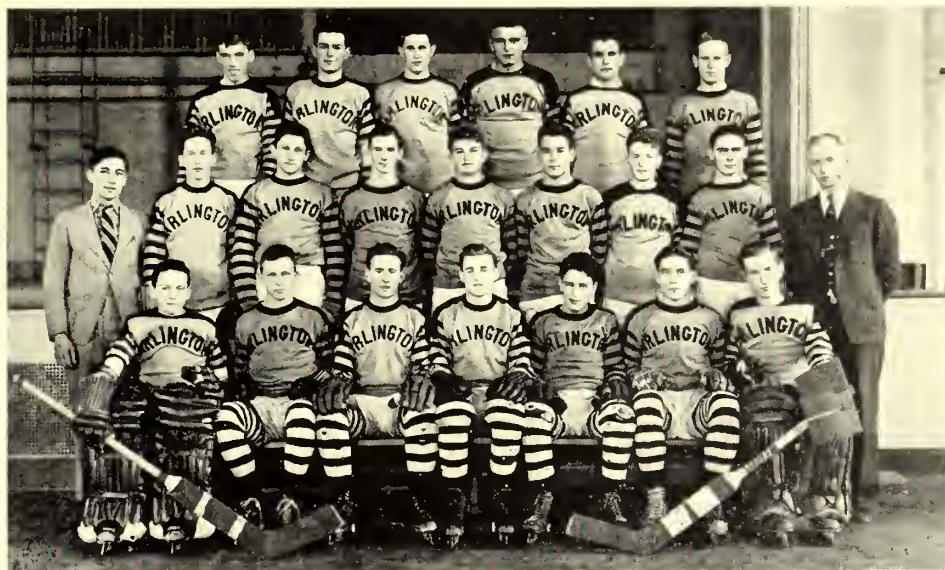

When the season was over, Marty Powers had made the second highest number of scores in the Suburban League. Corbett took third place in the League and in addition was chosen a forward in the All-Suburban team. Marty Powers was elected captain for the coming year.

Sitting: Ruth Kelly, Patricia Marden.

Girls' Basketball

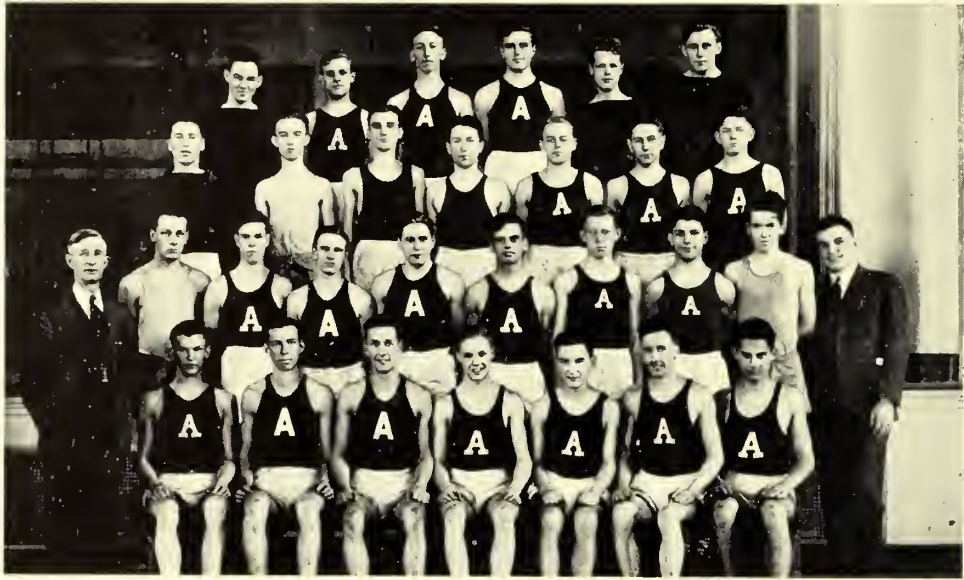

The basketball team made a poor start this season as only one letter girl, Margaret Meikle, remained. Later in the season the type of basketball was changed from three court to two court. Under the able guidance of Miss McCarthy, coach, and Margaret Meikle, captain, the team regained its former strength. At the close of the season the team was very successful, winning the last five games. Patricia Marden was elected as the captain for 1939.

Ice Hockey

The 1938 hockey team finished in fifth place in the Greater Boston Inter-scholastic Ice Hockey League. Although that achievement represented the top place of the second division of the league, the team proved itself at all times to have potential strength, not realized because of inexperience. Starting the season with Captain Bill Duffy and Larry Babine as the only seasoned veterans, the team did a remarkable job by developing into a constant threat to all of its opponents. Bill Lyons rapidly became a dependable forward and made up the first line with Duffy, Babine, and Lyons. Lindy Blanchard proved himself to be invaluable at defense and worked fairly effectively with Bill Barnstead. The goalies were experiencing their first year in the nets with Jack Carney bearing the brunt of the burden. Dave Bott and Jack Spinner saw service throughout the year. The greatest improvement shown was in the development of Joe Hickey, Bill Meaney, Dick Rowe, Dick Carens, Bob Saunders, George Malone, Robert Benshimol, Eddie Burns, and Don Moore. These boys were capable replacements for the starting team. Bob Battis and Art Wells were defense replacements. With Duffy, Babine, Meaney, Barnstead, Carens, and Bott the only probable graduates, Captain-elect Bill Lyons should hope to lead a successful Arlington High hockey team next year.

Indoor Track

The 1937-38 Indoor Track Team had a fairly successful season. The team was ably coached by "Doc" McCarty, who has guided the destinies of Arlington track teams for many years.

One dual meet was held with Brookline. Other meets had to be cancelled on account of weather conditions. Members of the Arlington team also took part in the Eastern Seaboard Relay meet, the State meet in the Boston Garden, and the New England Meet at Bowdoin College in Maine.

Those receiving letters were James Kellogg, Cabot Rowland, Warren Dunn, Hugh Fletcher, Walter Smith, Edward Parker, Edward Sahagian, Joseph Cronin, Alan Harwood, Richard Quinn, and Joseph Ambrose.

The team will always cherish the memory of Warren Dunn, one of its most promising sophomore members, who passed away on March 1, 1938.

Top Row: Coach Ostergren, G. Alden, J. Wilcox, L. Wilson, J. Cronin, F. Borselli, E. Kenny, H. O'Leary, Manager Thomas Connolly.

Middle Row: W. Coughlin, W. Donovan, J. O'Donoghue, J. Spinner, J. Cashman, N. Athanas, R. Sanders, D. Simonds.

Bottom Row: A. Massucco, W. Smith, P. Rubner, C. Lewis, J. Bevins, F. Wing.

Baseball

The baseball team has won nine, lost three, and has four more games to play as this is written. Newton and Watertown have lost twice to Arlington while Malden, Rindge, Brookline, Waltham, and Belmont have lost once. Cambridge Latin has defeated Arlington twice while Lowell is the only other team to defeat the Red and Gray.

With only two veterans to start the 1938 campaign the team has enjoyed a most successful season. John Cashman and Dwight Simonds have shared the pitching honors while the catching was done by Billy Mills and Billy Coughlin. The infield was composed of Ford Wing, Frank Borselli, Bobby Sanders, Dwight Simonds and Marty Powers and the outfield by Walter Donovan, John O'Donoghue and John Spinner.

Girls' Baseball

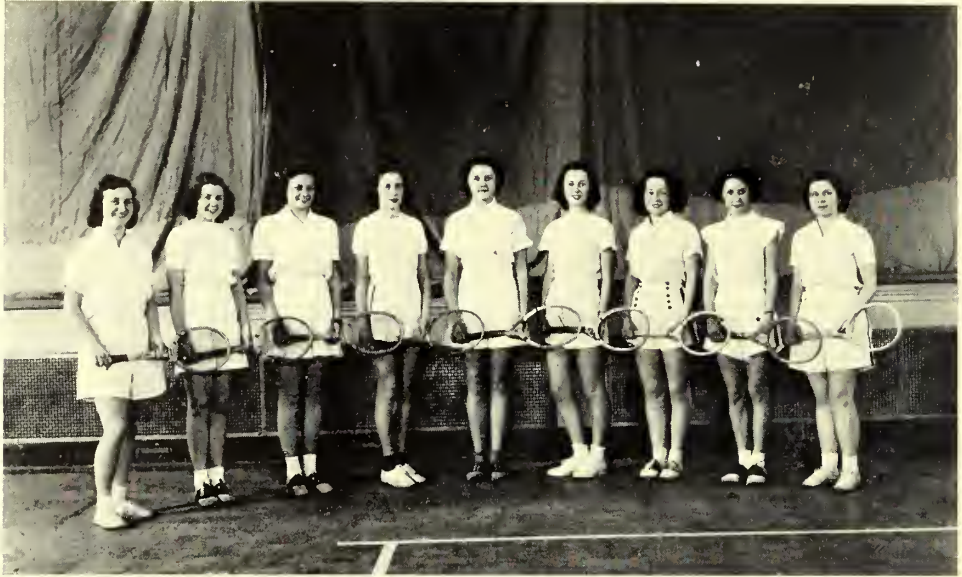

The girls' baseball team began the season with the Winchester game which it won 14 to 5. Corinne Sauerwald is the star pitcher and captain. Jacquelyne Hession is the catcher. The team, coached by Miss McCarty, is especially good this year and hopes to have a successful season.

Boys' Tennis

The Boys' Tennis Team, which last year won the Suburban League, is on its way to a repeated success this year. The team, coached by Mr. Lowder, and managed by Edward Begley, plays teams from Melrose, Watertown, Belmont, Lexington and Winthrop, and to date has won three games. The players are all juniors and thus give promise of a strong group next year.

Rosemary O'Neill, Carolyn Thompson, Barbara Eames, Virginia Flanders, Virginia Leonard, Jane Carroll, Mary Fitzpatrick, Captain; Viola Moore, Nancy Sanderson.

Girls' Tennis

The Arlington High School Girls' Tennis Team, led by Captain Mary Fitzpatrick and managed by Virginia Flanders, gained high honors for themselves and their school on the tennis courts this year. The team was ably coached by Miss Gallagher and played Malden, Melrose, Belmont, Winchester, Lexington, and Concord.

Cross Country

The 1937 Cross Country team had a successful season. Although composed mostly of green material, it developed into a very strong outfit. After losing the first meet to Quincy by one point, Arlington succeeded in defeating Winchester, Northeastern, Brockton, and Tufts freshmen. The team was ably led by Captain Edward Parker, one of the best distance runners in the state. The following received letters: Edward Parker, John Talty, Edward Sahagian, Joseph Cronin, Richard Wells, and Hugh Fletcher.

Golf

According to Mr. Robinson, this year's golf team is the best that Arlington High School has ever produced. It is a member of the Greater Boston Interscholastic League composed of Brookline, Waltham, Watertown, Lexington and Newton. Its home course is Winchester, and it has the privilege of playing on the courses at Braeburn, Oakley, Trapelo, Lexington Country Club, and Brookline. Michael Sawchuk is number one man, ably assisted by Paul Campbell and Russell Wedge. Last year Arlington was runner-up in the State tournament, and this year our undefeated team enthusiastically expects to win the tournament in June.

History of the Class of 1938

When the now experienced class of 1938 wandered into the new assembly hall as green sophomores in September, 1935, we little knew what was in store for us. We cannot help but say now that we greatly appreciated the sincere greeting that Mr. Gammons gave us.

As sophomores, we tried to hold up our end in school activities. The football season was, of course, our first interest in the school year. That year William Dale proved to "Osty" that he was going to be a first string man. From football, our interest switched to the Student Council which was sponsoring a drive for music with our meals. We worked in cooperation with the other two classes, and finally were rewarded by the sweet swing of Tommy Dorsey and Guy Lombardo. We had purchased an automatic Victrola with an amplifying system.

Our sophomore year was immeasurably saddened by the accidental death of William Bent. Bill is not forgotten by his classmates who have missed his sunny face through the years.

1935 also saw the beginning of future stars in the Dramatic Club production, "Smilin' Through." Ernest Benshimol, Irene Allison, and Eugene Peterson ably represented the sophomore class.

We returned to A. H. S. in the fall of 1936 to become members of the class that is neither here nor there. However, we determined to make our junior year an outstanding one.

Bill Dale lived up to his promise and proved to be an excellent center on the football team. Johnny Cashman and Bill Santo also upheld the honor of the junior class. The season ended victoriously when A. H. S. defeated Melrose, 13-7.

The Dramatic Club presented "The Youngest" as their annual production. Barbara Hobbs' histrionic ability earned her one of the leading roles in the play. Ernie Benshimol came through as usual with a good performance.

That spring the tennis team brought the cup to Arlington by a series of matches in which Arlington came out on top. During the whole season Arlington dropped not one single match. Thus with flying colors we finished our junior year.

In September we all realized that the great day had come at last. We were seniors! We had to face the year without Miss Murdoch, the head of the French department, who retired. She was well-beloved by all the students who aspired to the Gallic language. Miss Shedd, for many years a teacher in the French department, succeeded her. We here wish to pay tribute to Miss Shedd, one of the finest teachers that Arlington has ever had. At the same time, Mr. Plummer of the Art Department was succeeded by Mr. Kenny. We also welcomed Mr. Wallace to the Commercial department, Mr. Campbell to the French department, and Mr. Lowder, an alumnus, to the Athletic department.

The football team had a fair season, but now we don't ever mention a certain Thanksgiving Day in 1937. It is better left unwritten and unsung.

The Dramatic Club produced "The Admirable Crichton" with an admirable cast. Ernie Benshimol shone once more as the impeccable butler, and Bill Miller, one of the most erudite members of our class, practically stole the show with his characterization of the clergyman.

The election for senior class officers was held and the results were: President, Walter Donovan; Vice-President, Marcia Lowcock; Secretary, Jane Carroll; Treasurer, Nancy Sanderson. Joe Ambrose was made Editor-in-Chief of the Year Book, and we know that ours is one of the best.

The Student Council put across another new idea, and the result was several Friday afternoon dances. The dances were well supported and a fair sum of money was made. The Council was also active in promoting a successful campaign to keep the lunchroom tidy.

In a new type assembly for the celebration of Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays we had a panel discussion. Donald Larrabee and John Dolan, along with a group of seniors, led this meeting to a very successful finish. Discussion came from the floor as well as the stage, which contributed greatly to everyone's enjoyment.

With the Senior Prom, Class Day, and Commencement not so far in the offing we are beginning to look back in retrospect over our three years in Arlington High School. We can truthfully say that we appreciate all that our school has done for us and while we look forward to other schools and occupations, we shall feel some regret on leaving the old familiar ways and all the teachers who have given us so much of themselves. May we never let them down.

Congratulations

A Year Book is More Than a Series of Printed Pages Bound into a Cover

It is the result of anxious thought, and weeks of patient, persistent effort.

Your staff has accepted and discharged a real responsibility, and we feel sure that you, who turn these pages and re-live the events of the year just concluded, will join us in congratulating them.

We are proud of the confidence placed in our ability to produce a book in keeping with the ideals of the school which sponsors it.

We earnestly hope that this feeling of confidence will persist, and that it will be our privilege to place the facilities of this organization at the
